

Endsieg – The Final Victory

(A Prophecy of the Coming Golden Age)

By: An Anonymous Follower of the Aryan Truth

That day was dawning. The day on which the sun shined most magnificently on that eternal symbol, the swastika, which gleamed gloriously, reigning most divinely over the land. The Jewish tyrants who have oppressed and persecuted all forms of life throughout their history were now finally off their thrones. All life celebrated in this most destined triumph! But what was to come before this day? How would this event come about? Before this victory the world will be in its most degenerate and sickened state. But the greatest and most masterful race would still be on the Earth. And in this period of time, from the remaining members of that race, would all the great humans reincarnate again. All the great heroes of the ancient Aryan past spanning to the present age. Every great warrior and every wise fighter. Every true follower of National Socialism, of the Aryan Truth. And every man and woman who was heroic enough to put the welfare of their race and people before their own, and to take every necessary action to maintain that welfare.

But most importantly, the mightiest and most powerful Heroes of our race would come. Those who have always lead all other heroes to glory, and showed the people the right path when no one else did. I do not have to mention their names, because you know them already from history, legend, and myth. These men and women would now be given birth and residence in the most decadent centers of the Earth. From the time of their births in this age, they will be spiritually united with one another, as they were even in death, united in their common cause of lighting the way for humanity. When alive they will not know this consciously, but only in their souls, until their coming of age. And from the lands they dwell in they will rise out of the darkness which surrounds them and bring the light of truth and divinity to their wretched neighbors. And out of this icy darkness in this world will also rise the Great One, the Leader, the Strong One from Above. He will make himself known and bring together all of his fighters to struggle one more time, and make one more leap of greatness to bring about the golden age of the swastika. He will unite the Heroes and lead them to victory, to ensure that they are finally given their rightful place as the highest leaders of their race. From their meeting will that divine triumph of destiny occur. And when it does, all of divinity shall cleanse the Earth! Thor's lightning will strike out all evil, Frey's fertility will throw off all signs of death, Freya's magic will wash away all ugliness, and Wotan's wisdom will pierce all ignorance!

The Divine Spirit will come out with an enormous burst of energy and unite all life. Man, Nature, and God will be together and un-separated once more in that instant. And the age will come when that most eternal and divine truth, National Socialism - the Wisdom of the Aryans, will finally be made clear and put into practice by all!

This knowledge has come to me as a great prophetic vision of glory, piercing out of my inner eye and into my memory. Do you now see it too comrade?

But until this vision comes true, until the coming of this age, this Final Victory, we must stay faithful and never forget this call from Savitri Devi:

“In the midst of untold hardships and suffering, hold fast to our glorious National Socialist faith, and resist! Defy our persecutors! Defy the people, defy the forces that are working to "de-nazify" the German nation and the world at large! Nothing can destroy that which is built in truth. We are the pure gold put to test in the furnace, Let the furnace blaze and roar! Nothing can destroy us. One day we shall rise and triumph again. Hope and wait! Heil Hitler!”

And while we wait in this hell, we who are alive must never forget that we are not alone. Remember Horst Wessel's song:

“The flag high! The ranks tightly closed!
The SA marches with a calm, firm pace.
Comrades shot by the Red Front and reactionaries
March in spirit in our ranks.
Clear the streets for the brown battalions,
Clear the streets for the stormtroopers!
Already millions look with hope to the swastika
The day of freedom and bread is dawning!
Roll call has sounded for the last time
We are all already prepared for the fight!
Soon Hitler's flag will fly over all streets.
Our slavery will soon end!
The flag high! The ranks tightly closed!
The SA marches with a calm, firm pace.
Comrades shot by the Red Front and reactionaries
March in spirit in our ranks.”

Comrades, the spirits of our ancestors and dead comrades watch! Be ready to avenge them when the time comes!
